

SEEK LOW NOT DURING HOUSE?

Mrs. F. W. Taylor's Husband
Said to Have Had the Contagion.

HER CHILD ILL WITH IT. WARING'S STOCK IS UP.

She Keeps the Two Boarding Places, No. 37 West 34th St. and No. 32 West 24th St.

The Commissioner Now Regarded as the Most Likely Man of That Party.

MR. TAYLOR RECENTLY IN MEXICO

Dr. Nichol, Who Was Called in at the Breaking Out of His Case, Says
He Believes the Disease Was Genuine Smallpox.

The inmates of the boarding house kept by Mrs. Fred W. Taylor, at No. 37 West Thirty-fourth street, are much frightened over the possibility that they have been exposed to smallpox.

The eight-month-old child of Mrs. Taylor was removed Saturday to North Brother's Island and was said to be suffering from the dreaded malady. It then developed that Mrs. Taylor, the husband and father, who had arrived home seven weeks ago from a trip to Mexico, had been very ill, presumably with smallpox, and that he had communicated it to the child.

The case was not reported to the Health Office, and he is said to have remained in the house until he was convalescent. It is said it was only when the Health Office made an investigation of the child's illness that it was found that Mr. Taylor had been ill with the disease.

The child was then ordered to North Brother's Island, Mrs. Taylor going with it, and the house was fumigated by the Health Department's order.

Mrs. Taylor has another boarding house, at No. 32 West Twenty-fourth street, and it is reported that her husband, when he had recovered from his illness, also mingled with the inmates of that house, and they are accordingly alarmed.

Dr. John MacCall, a physician who lives at No. 213 East Sixty-ninth street, and who is a brother of Mrs. Taylor, is said to have been the physician who attended her husband. He was seen last night at his residence and refused to talk about the case.

He did not deny that Mr. Taylor had been ill with smallpox, but said his explanation of his conduct would be made to President Charles G. Wilson, of the Board of Health, today.

Dr. Rawlings Nichol, a physician who lives at No. 37 West Twenty-fourth street, and who was reported to have attended Mrs. Taylor, was seen and was willing to tell all he knew about the case.

He said he attended Mr. Taylor on March 26, when he was suffering from incontinent fever. He was called because Dr. Brown did not come at the hour expected. He had made no diagnosis of the case, and a few days later went to Florida. When he returned he was told Mr. Taylor was in Philadelphia. Later he saw Mr. Taylor across the street, and his face seemed to be peeling. He thought his appearance indicated he was recovering from smallpox or some similar disease, and sent his assistant to investigate, who reported that the smallpox conjecture was correct. Dr. Nichol does not attach to her death, but is certain that Mr. Taylor had smallpox and that the fact was kept from the health authorities. Mrs. Taylor, Dr. Nichol thinks, has not contracted the disease, unless it is since she went to the hospital to nurse her child.

TWO PRETTY WEDDINGS.

Miss Lucy Brady Married in Church and Miss Adela Guggenheimer at Home.

The wedding of Miss Lucy Irene Brady and James Joseph Dollard took place at 10 o'clock yesterday morning in the Church of the Blessed Sacrament, in West Seventy-first street, Rev. Father Taylor officiating. The bride wore a white satin gown simply made and tulle veil, secured with a band of orange blossoms. Her bouquet was composed of white roses.

Miss Elizabeth Henninger, the maid of honor, was dressed in white broadcloth and carried a bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaids were dressed in white and blue, with turquoise blue velvet and feathers. The two youthful flower maidens, Veronica Brady and Mary L. Dollard, were sisters of the bride and bridegroom. John Naughton was the best man, and the fathers, Victor Brady, father of the bride, and Edward Carroll and James Boylston, were the ushers. A reception and wedding breakfast was given after the church ceremony by the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Brady, at their home, No. 274 West Seventy-first street.

Miss Adela Guggenheimer and Philip Lawlor were married yesterday at noon at the residence of the bride's father, ex-Commissioner Guggenheimer, at No. 8 East Eighth street. The formal decorations were extremely elaborate. In all the doorways were portieres of roses and anemones, and the mirrors were curtained with flowers, and the mantels banked. Rev. Dr. Gottlieb performed the ceremony. The bride wore a superb costume of white satin with point lace and lace veil. A large reception followed. The couple will sail on Wednesday, May 12, for Europe.

DEBOE TAKES HIS SEAT.

New Senator from Kentucky Gets a Warm Greeting as He Enters the Chamber and on the Floor.

Washington, May 5.—The new Senator from Kentucky, W. J. Deboe, was on the floor of the Senate today for the first time in his official capacity. Accompanied by Senator Lindsay, of Kentucky, he entered the chamber shortly before the Senate opened and held an impromptu levee in the rear of the Republican side of the chamber.

A towering bouquet of American Beauty roses and lilies was placed on the desk to be occupied by Mr. Deboe, and in the rear row of the Republican side. Several of the Kentucky members of the House came over to greet the new Senator. It was evident, too, that the Kentuckians were represented in the galleries, as they applauded his entrance to the Senate.

Immediately after the reading of the Journal, Mr. Lindsay presented the credentials of his colleague, and, after Mr. Deboe had taken the oath of office, the two proceeded to the desk of the Vice-President, where the oath of office was administered.

TO HONOR VON STEUBEN.

Patriotic Women Will Celebrate an Anniversary of His Arrival Here.

Several colonial and patriotic societies will be represented by a committee of women, who will meet in one of the parlors of Sulzer's Harlem River Park at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning to arrange a programme for commemorating the one hundred and twentieth anniversary of Baron Von Steuben's arrival in America. The celebration will occur at the park on Wednesday, May 12.

The committee is composed of Mrs. Flora Adams Darling, Mrs. L. Roy Sunderland, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Sally Carr, Mrs. Frederick F. Erie, Mrs. H. C. Bailey and Mrs. Adolph Glaser.

Citizens' Union May Have to Look Elsewhere for a Candidate.

WARING'S STOCK IS UP.

The Commissioner Now Regarded as the Most Likely Man of That Party.

NEW CHARTER BRINGS ACTIVITY

Governor Black's Signature Has Set the Various Parties and Organizations at Work in Earnest.

Now that Governor Black has signed the charter the political organizations and parties will begin preparations for the municipal campaign.

There was a full last night in the progress of the Citizens' Union campaign. A meeting of business men had been called, but for an unexplained reason it did not take place. In regard to the nomination of municipal candidates, R. Fulton Cutting, chairman of the Committee of Two Hundred and Fifty, said yesterday:

"Now that the charter has been signed action will be taken as soon as practicable, but nothing precipitate will be done." George M. Cassatt, of the Committee of Two Hundred and Fifty, said: "The signing of the charter complicates matters, but undoubtedly nomination will be made as soon as possible. We will not become alarmed at adverse criticism, but go ahead with our programme."

It was said last night by a man prominent in Citizens' Union affairs, that the Low was now regarded as an available candidate, and it was not probable that he would be chosen as the Citizens' nominee for Mayor. The Union leader said that opposition to his nomination had arisen in Brooklyn, where his chief strength was supposed to be.

He further stated that the view of this unexpected situation the stock of Colonel Waring, Commissioner of Street Cleaning, had risen above par.

Republican Conference Committees were appointed in Kings and Richmond counties Tuesday night, and on Saturday night the Queens County Republican Committee will meet for a similar purpose. An understanding already exists between Tammany and the Lauchlin Democratic, and all that remains to be done is the appointment of convention representation.

Another factor in the campaign will be the fact that the National Democratic Association will meet next Monday night to organize and elect delegates to the County Committee. The National Democrats have not formulated any plan of action in regard to next fall, beyond stating that they intend to combine with the Citizens' Union to bring all Democratic organizations into line for a straight Democratic ticket. The National Democrats are one of the organizations from which the Citizens' Union hoped to receive support for its non-partisan ticket.

Another factor in the campaign will be the fact that the National Democratic Association will meet next Monday night to organize and elect delegates to the County Committee. The National Democrats have not formulated any plan of action in regard to next fall, beyond stating that they intend to combine with the Citizens' Union to bring all Democratic organizations into line for a straight Democratic ticket.

Another factor in the campaign will be the fact that the National Democratic Association will meet next Monday night to organize and elect delegates to the County Committee. The National Democrats have not formulated any plan of action in regard to next fall, beyond stating that they intend to combine with the Citizens' Union to bring all Democratic organizations into line for a straight Democratic ticket.

Another factor in the campaign will be the fact that the National Democratic Association will meet next Monday night to organize and elect delegates to the County Committee. The National Democrats have not formulated any plan of action in regard to next fall, beyond stating that they intend to combine with the Citizens' Union to bring all Democratic organizations into line for a straight Democratic ticket.

Another factor in the campaign will be the fact that the National Democratic Association will meet next Monday night to organize and elect delegates to the County Committee. The National Democrats have not formulated any plan of action in regard to next fall, beyond stating that they intend to combine with the Citizens' Union to bring all Democratic organizations into line for a straight Democratic ticket.

Another factor in the campaign will be the fact that the National Democratic Association will meet next Monday night to organize and elect delegates to the County Committee. The National Democrats have not formulated any plan of action in regard to next fall, beyond stating that they intend to combine with the Citizens' Union to bring all Democratic organizations into line for a straight Democratic ticket.

Another factor in the campaign will be the fact that the National Democratic Association will meet next Monday night to organize and elect delegates to the County Committee. The National Democrats have not formulated any plan of action in regard to next fall, beyond stating that they intend to combine with the Citizens' Union to bring all Democratic organizations into line for a straight Democratic ticket.

Another factor in the campaign will be the fact that the National Democratic Association will meet next Monday night to organize and elect delegates to the County Committee. The National Democrats have not formulated any plan of action in regard to next fall, beyond stating that they intend to combine with the Citizens' Union to bring all Democratic organizations into line for a straight Democratic ticket.

Another factor in the campaign will be the fact that the National Democratic Association will meet next Monday night to organize and elect delegates to the County Committee. The National Democrats have not formulated any plan of action in regard to next fall, beyond stating that they intend to combine with the Citizens' Union to bring all Democratic organizations into line for a straight Democratic ticket.

Another factor in the campaign will be the fact that the National Democratic Association will meet next Monday night to organize and elect delegates to the County Committee. The National Democrats have not formulated any plan of action in regard to next fall, beyond stating that they intend to combine with the Citizens' Union to bring all Democratic organizations into line for a straight Democratic ticket.

Another factor in the campaign will be the fact that the National Democratic Association will meet next Monday night to organize and elect delegates to the County Committee. The National Democrats have not formulated any plan of action in regard to next fall, beyond stating that they intend to combine with the Citizens' Union to bring all Democratic organizations into line for a straight Democratic ticket.

Another factor in the campaign will be the fact that the National Democratic Association will meet next Monday night to organize and elect delegates to the County Committee. The National Democrats have not formulated any plan of action in regard to next fall, beyond stating that they intend to combine with the Citizens' Union to bring all Democratic organizations into line for a straight Democratic ticket.

Another factor in the campaign will be the fact that the National Democratic Association will meet next Monday night to organize and elect delegates to the County Committee. The National Democrats have not formulated any plan of action in regard to next fall, beyond stating that they intend to combine with the Citizens' Union to bring all Democratic organizations into line for a straight Democratic ticket.

Another factor in the campaign will be the fact that the National Democratic Association will meet next Monday night to organize and elect delegates to the County Committee. The National Democrats have not formulated any plan of action in regard to next fall, beyond stating that they intend to combine with the Citizens' Union to bring all Democratic organizations into line for a straight Democratic ticket.

Another factor in the campaign will be the fact that the National Democratic Association will meet next Monday night to organize and elect delegates to the County Committee. The National Democrats have not formulated any plan of action in regard to next fall, beyond stating that they intend to combine with the Citizens' Union to bring all Democratic organizations into line for a straight Democratic ticket.

Another factor in the campaign will be the fact that the National Democratic Association will meet next Monday night to organize and elect delegates to the County Committee. The National Democrats have not formulated any plan of action in regard to next fall, beyond stating that they intend to combine with the Citizens' Union to bring all Democratic organizations into line for a straight Democratic ticket.

Another factor in the campaign will be the fact that the National Democratic Association will meet next Monday night to organize and elect delegates to the County Committee. The National Democrats have not formulated any plan of action in regard to next fall, beyond stating that they intend to combine with the Citizens' Union to bring all Democratic organizations into line for a straight Democratic ticket.

Another factor in the campaign will be the fact that the National Democratic Association will meet next Monday night to organize and elect delegates to the County Committee. The National Democrats have not formulated any plan of action in regard to next fall, beyond stating that they intend to combine with the Citizens' Union to bring all Democratic organizations into line for a straight Democratic ticket.

Another factor in the campaign will be the fact that the National Democratic Association will meet next Monday night to organize and elect delegates to the County Committee. The National Democrats have not formulated any plan of action in regard to next fall, beyond stating that they intend to combine with the Citizens' Union to bring all Democratic organizations into line for a straight Democratic ticket.

Another factor in the campaign will be the fact that the National Democratic Association will meet next Monday night to organize and elect delegates to the County Committee. The National Democrats have not formulated any plan of action in regard to next fall, beyond stating that they intend to combine with the Citizens' Union to bring all Democratic organizations into line for a straight Democratic ticket.

Another factor in the campaign will be the fact that the National Democratic Association will meet next Monday night to organize and elect delegates to the County Committee. The National Democrats have not formulated any plan of action in regard to next fall, beyond stating that they intend to combine with the Citizens' Union to bring all Democratic organizations into line for a straight Democratic ticket.

Another factor in the campaign will be the fact that the National Democratic Association will meet next Monday night to organize and elect delegates to the County Committee. The National Democrats have not formulated any plan of action in regard to next fall, beyond stating that they intend to combine with the Citizens' Union to bring all Democratic organizations into line for a straight Democratic ticket.

Another factor in the campaign will be the fact that the National Democratic Association will meet next Monday night to organize and elect delegates to the County Committee. The National Democrats have not formulated any plan of action in regard to next fall, beyond stating that they intend to combine with the Citizens' Union to bring all Democratic organizations into line for a straight Democratic ticket.

Another factor in the campaign will be the fact that the National Democratic Association will meet next Monday night to organize and elect delegates to the County Committee. The National Democrats have not formulated any plan of action in regard to next fall, beyond stating that they intend to combine with the Citizens' Union to bring all Democratic organizations into line for a straight Democratic ticket.

Another factor in the campaign will be the fact that the National Democratic Association will meet next Monday night to organize and elect delegates to the County Committee. The National Democrats have not formulated any plan of action in regard to next fall, beyond stating that they intend to combine with the Citizens' Union to bring all Democratic organizations into line for a straight Democratic ticket.

Another factor in the campaign will be the fact that the National Democratic Association will meet next Monday night to organize and elect delegates to the County Committee. The National Democrats have not formulated any plan of action in regard to next fall, beyond stating that they intend to combine with the Citizens' Union to bring all Democratic organizations into line for a straight Democratic ticket.

Another factor in the campaign will be the fact that the National Democratic Association will meet next Monday night to organize and elect delegates to the County Committee. The National Democrats have not formulated any plan of action in regard to next fall, beyond stating that they intend to combine with the Citizens' Union to bring all Democratic organizations into line for a straight Democratic ticket.

Another factor in the campaign will be the fact that the National Democratic Association will meet next Monday night to organize and elect delegates to the County Committee. The National Democrats have not formulated any plan of action in regard to next fall, beyond stating that they intend to combine with the Citizens' Union to bring all Democratic organizations into line for a straight Democratic ticket.

PALESTINE AS A LAND OF REFUGE.

Holy Ground Held Out as a Home for Aged and Persecuted Hebrews.

NO COLONIZATION PLAN.

A Monster Conference to Be Held in Munich in the Latter Part of August.

Former Register Ferdinand Levy is the prime mover in this country in the formation of an organization, the influence of which will be felt wherever rests the foot of a wandering child of Israel. Connected with such Hebrews as Baron Rothschild, Dr. Hildesheimer, the world-famed Hebrew scholar, Dr. Hertz, Max Nordau and many other European celebrities, it is proposed to form an association, with its branches in every part of the world, which will seek to establish in Palestine an asylum for the persecuted and oppressed of the Jewish race.

The meeting in Liberty Hall, in Houston street, Tuesday evening was the prelude to a monster mass meeting which will be held in Carnegie Hall within ten days, to be followed by similar meetings in Brooklyn, Philadelphia, Boston and Chicago.

"Many seem to think," said the former Register last evening, "that the sole purpose of this organization is the reclaiming of Palestine to the Jewish race. This is an error. Humanity is alone the actuating motive. Some time ago Baron Rothschild, Claude Montefiore, son of the famous Sir Moses Montefiore, and Dr. Hildesheimer, of Germany, held a conference in London, at which it was decided to hold in Munich, on August 26 next, a monster Jewish congress. The intelligence and wealth of the Jewish race will take part.

"It will not be a political gathering in any sense of the word. Three subjects will be discussed. The first will be the colonization of Palestine. In that country there are already 300,000 Hebrews, and the numbers are constantly increasing. Enlightened men of our race think that Palestine is the best adapted as an asylum for oppressed Hebrews.

"The next question to be considered is the persecution of our race. In Vienna Jews are outcasts. The present and city government would not permit them to enter. The condition of affairs there is daily growing more serious and the attention of Jewish philanthropists has been attracted there by the pitiful appeals of our downtrodden children.

"Then, again, it is considered absolutely necessary to establish a permanent refuge for the persecuted of the Jewish race. Russia and other countries looked to America, where they found a home. We want to have a permanent refuge where, when an edict is issued by the Czar or any one else, banishing our people, we have a place to flee to. It is the opinion of all that a better place could not be found than Palestine.

"The next question to be considered is the persecution of our race. In Vienna Jews are outcasts. The present and city government would not permit them to enter. The condition of affairs there is daily growing more serious and the attention of Jewish philanthropists has been attracted there by the pitiful appeals of our downtrodden children.

"Then, again, it is considered absolutely necessary to establish a permanent refuge for the persecuted of the Jewish race. Russia and other countries looked to America, where they found a home. We want to have a permanent refuge where, when an edict is issued by the Czar or any one else, banishing our people, we have a place to flee to. It is the opinion of all that a better place could not be found than Palestine.

"The next question to be considered is the persecution of our race. In Vienna Jews are outcasts. The present and city government would not permit them to enter. The condition of affairs there is daily growing more serious and the attention of Jewish philanthropists has been attracted there by the pitiful appeals of our downtrodden children.

"Then, again, it is considered absolutely necessary to establish a permanent refuge for the persecuted of the Jewish race. Russia and other countries looked to America, where they found a home. We want to have a permanent refuge where, when an edict is issued by the Czar or any one else, banishing our people, we have a place to flee to. It is the opinion of all that a better place could not be found than Palestine.

"The next question to be considered is the persecution of our race. In Vienna Jews are outcasts. The present and city government would not permit them to enter. The condition of affairs there is daily growing more serious and the attention of Jewish philanthropists has been attracted there by the pitiful appeals of our downtrodden children.

"Then, again, it is considered absolutely necessary to establish a permanent refuge for the persecuted of the Jewish race. Russia and other countries looked to America, where they found a home. We want to have a permanent refuge where, when an edict is issued by the Czar or any one else, banishing our people, we have a place to flee to. It is the opinion of all that a better place could not be found than Palestine.

"The next question to be considered is the persecution of our race. In Vienna Jews are outcasts. The present and city government would not permit them to enter. The condition of affairs there is daily growing more serious and the attention of Jewish philanthropists has been attracted there by the pitiful appeals of our downtrodden children.

"Then, again, it is considered absolutely necessary to establish a permanent refuge for the persecuted of the Jewish race. Russia and other countries looked to America, where they found a home. We want to have a permanent refuge where, when an edict is issued by the Czar or any one else, banishing our people, we have a place to flee to. It is the opinion of all that a better place could not be found than Palestine.

"The next question to be considered is the persecution of our race. In Vienna Jews are outcasts. The present and city government would not permit them to enter. The condition of affairs there is daily growing more serious and the attention of Jewish philanthropists has been attracted there by the pitiful appeals of our downtrodden children.

"Then, again, it is considered absolutely necessary to establish a permanent refuge for the persecuted of the Jewish race. Russia and other countries looked to America, where they found a home. We want to have a permanent refuge where, when an edict is issued by the Czar or any one else, banishing our people, we have a place to flee to. It is the opinion of all that a better place could not be found than Palestine.

"The next question to be considered is the persecution of our race. In Vienna Jews are outcasts. The present and city government would not permit them to enter. The condition of affairs there is daily growing more serious and the attention of Jewish philanthropists has been attracted there by the pitiful appeals of our downtrodden children.

"Then, again, it is considered absolutely necessary to establish a permanent refuge for the persecuted of the Jewish race. Russia and other countries looked to America, where they found a home. We want to have a permanent refuge where, when an edict is issued by the Czar or any one else, banishing our people, we have a place to flee to. It is the opinion of all that a better place could not be found than Palestine.

"The next question to be considered is the persecution of our race. In Vienna Jews are outcasts. The present and city government would not permit them to enter. The condition of affairs there is daily growing more serious and the attention of Jewish philanthropists has been attracted there by the pitiful appeals of our downtrodden children.

"Then, again, it is considered absolutely necessary to establish a permanent refuge for the persecuted of the Jewish race. Russia and other countries looked to America, where they found a home. We want to have a permanent refuge where, when an edict is issued by the Czar or any one else, banishing our people, we have a place to flee to. It is the opinion of all that a better place could not be found than Palestine.

"The next question to be considered is the persecution of our race. In Vienna Jews are outcasts. The present and city government would not permit them to enter. The condition of affairs there is daily growing more serious and the attention of Jewish philanthropists has been attracted there by the pitiful appeals of our downtrodden children.

"Then, again, it is considered absolutely necessary to establish a permanent refuge for the persecuted of the Jewish race. Russia and other countries looked to America, where they found a home. We want to have a permanent refuge where, when an edict is issued by the Czar or any one else, banishing our people, we have a place to flee to. It is the opinion of all that a better place could not be found than Palestine.

"The next question to be considered is the persecution of our race. In Vienna Jews are outcasts. The present and city government would not permit them to enter. The condition of affairs there is daily growing more serious and the attention of Jewish philanthropists has been attracted there by the pitiful appeals of our downtrodden children.

"Then, again, it is considered absolutely necessary to establish a permanent refuge for the persecuted of the Jewish race. Russia and other countries looked to America, where they found a home. We want to have a permanent refuge where, when an edict is issued by the Czar or any one else, banishing our people, we have a place to flee to. It is the opinion of all that a better place could not be found than Palestine.

"The next question to be considered is the persecution of our race. In Vienna Jews are outcasts. The present and city government would not permit them to enter. The condition of affairs there is daily growing more serious and the attention of Jewish philanthropists has been attracted there by the pitiful appeals of our downtrodden children.

"Then, again, it is considered absolutely necessary to establish a permanent refuge for the persecuted of the Jewish race. Russia and other countries looked to America, where they found a home. We want to have a permanent refuge where, when an edict is issued by the Czar or any one else, banishing our people, we have a place to flee to. It is the opinion of all that a better place could not be found than Palestine.

"The next question to be considered is the persecution of our race. In Vienna Jews are outcasts. The present and city government would not permit them to enter. The condition of affairs there is daily growing more serious and the attention of Jewish philanthropists has been attracted there by the pitiful appeals of our downtrodden children.

"NO, WILLIAM; NOTHING MORE AT PRESENT, THANK YOU."

tion aroused was most disagreeable to the Potter family. In 1886 Mrs. Potter went abroad with her mother as chaperone. Then it was whispered here that she was going to have a permanent refuge where, when an edict is issued by the Czar or any one else, banishing our people, we have a place to flee to. It is the opinion of all that a better place could not be found than Palestine.

"The next question to be considered is the persecution of our race. In Vienna Jews are outcasts. The present and city government would not permit them to enter. The condition of affairs there is daily growing more serious and the attention of Jewish philanthropists has been attracted there by the pitiful appeals of our downtrodden children.

"Then, again, it is considered absolutely necessary to establish a permanent refuge for the persecuted of the Jewish race. Russia and other countries looked to America, where they found a home. We want to have a permanent refuge where, when an edict is issued by the Czar or any one else, banishing our people, we have a place to flee to. It is the opinion of all that a better place could not be found than Palestine.

"The next question to be considered is the persecution of our race. In Vienna Jews are outcasts. The present and city government would not permit them to enter. The condition of affairs there is daily growing more serious and the attention of Jewish philanthropists has been attracted there by the pitiful appeals of our downtrodden children.

"Then, again, it is considered absolutely necessary to establish a permanent refuge for the persecuted of the Jewish race. Russia and other countries looked to America, where they found a home. We want to have a permanent refuge where, when an edict is issued by the Czar or any one else, banishing our people, we have a place to flee to. It is the opinion of all that a better place could not be found than Palestine.

"The next question to be considered is the persecution of our race. In Vienna Jews are outcasts. The present and city government would not permit them to enter. The condition of affairs there is daily growing more serious and the attention of Jewish philanthropists has been attracted there by the pitiful appeals of our downtrodden children.

"Then, again, it is considered absolutely necessary to establish a permanent refuge for the persecuted of the Jewish race. Russia and other countries looked to America, where they found a home. We want to have a permanent refuge where, when an edict is issued by the Czar or any one else, banishing our people, we have a place to flee to. It is the opinion of all that a better place could not be found than Palestine.

"The next question to be considered is the persecution of our race. In Vienna Jews are outcasts. The present and city government would not permit them to enter. The condition of affairs there is daily growing more serious and the attention of Jewish philanthropists has been attracted there by the pitiful appeals of our downtrodden children.

"Then, again, it is considered absolutely necessary to establish a permanent refuge for the persecuted of the Jewish race. Russia and other countries looked to America, where they found a home. We want to have a permanent refuge where, when an edict is issued by the Czar or any one else, banishing our people, we have a place to flee to. It is the opinion of all that a better place could not be found than Palestine.

"The next question to be considered is the persecution of our race. In Vienna Jews are outcasts. The present and city government would not permit them to enter. The condition of affairs there is daily growing more serious and the attention of Jewish philanthropists has been attracted there by the pitiful appeals of our downtrodden children.

"Then, again, it is considered absolutely necessary to establish a permanent refuge for the persecuted of the Jewish race. Russia and other countries looked to America, where they found a home. We want to have a permanent refuge where, when an edict is issued by the Czar or any one else, banishing our people, we have a place to flee to. It is the opinion of all that a better place could not be found than Palestine.

"The next question to be considered is the persecution of our race. In Vienna Jews are outcasts. The present and city government would not permit them to enter. The condition of affairs there is daily growing more serious and the attention of Jewish philanthropists has been attracted there by the pitiful appeals of our downtrodden children.

"Then, again, it is considered absolutely necessary to establish a permanent refuge for the persecuted of the Jewish race. Russia and other countries looked to America, where they found a home. We want to have a permanent refuge where, when an edict is issued by the Czar or any one else, banishing our people, we have a place to flee to. It is the opinion of all that a better place could not be found than Palestine.

"The next question to be considered is the persecution of our race. In Vienna Jews are outcasts. The present and city government would not permit them to enter. The condition of affairs there is daily growing more serious and the attention of Jewish philanthropists has been attracted there by the pitiful appeals of our downtrodden children.

"Then, again, it is considered absolutely necessary to establish a permanent refuge for the persecuted of the Jewish race. Russia and other countries looked to America, where they found a home. We want to have a permanent refuge where, when an edict is issued by the Czar or any one else, banishing our people, we have a place to flee to. It is the opinion of all that a better place could not be found than Palestine.

"The next question to be considered is the persecution of our race. In Vienna Jews are outcasts. The present and city government would not permit them to enter. The condition of affairs there is daily growing more serious and the attention of Jewish philanthropists has been attracted there by the pitiful appeals of our downtrodden children.

"Then, again, it is considered absolutely necessary to establish a permanent refuge for the persecuted of the Jewish race. Russia and other countries looked to America, where they found a home. We want to have a permanent refuge where, when an edict is issued by the Czar or any one else, banishing our people, we have a place to flee to. It is the opinion of all that a better place could not be found than Palestine.

"The next question to be considered is the persecution of our race. In Vienna Jews are outcasts. The present and city government would not permit them to enter. The condition of affairs there is daily growing more serious and the attention of Jewish philanthropists has been attracted there by the pitiful appeals of our downtrodden children.

"Then, again, it is considered absolutely necessary to establish a permanent refuge for the persecuted of the Jewish race. Russia and other countries looked to America, where they found a home. We want to have a permanent refuge where, when an edict is issued by the Czar or any one else, banishing our people, we have a place to flee to. It is the opinion of all that a better place could not be found than Palestine.

"The next question to be considered is the persecution of our race. In Vienna Jews are outcasts. The present and city government would not permit them to enter. The condition of affairs there is daily growing more serious and the attention of Jewish philanthropists has been attracted there by the pitiful appeals of our downtrodden children.

"Then, again, it is considered absolutely necessary to establish a permanent refuge for the persecuted of the Jewish race. Russia and other countries looked to America, where they found a home. We want to have a permanent refuge where, when an edict is issued by the Czar or any one else, banishing our people, we have a place to flee to. It is the opinion of all that a better place could not be found than Palestine.

BABY 'WOOD'S' WOES HAVE BEGUN EARLY

Five Weeks Old, He Has Been Deserted Four Times in Five Days.

NOBODY WANTS HIM.

Foster Mother, Mrs. Golden, Says
He Cries Too Much